

REMARKS

Please incorporate the Remarks filed February 28, 2006 herein. According to the foregoing, claims 1, 2, 6 and 7 have been amended. Claims 1-7 are pending and under consideration.

As stated in the Amendment After Final Rejection, filed February 28, 2006, the present invention, according to amended claim 1 for example, recites in response to the performing one or more operations at the third computer, generating a transmission, sent via a communication path common to the first, second and third computers, comprising indicia of the one or more performed operations and information operated on by each of the one or more operations; and receiving the transmission at the first and second computers via the communication path.

On the continuation sheet of the Advisory Action, mailed March 21, 2006, the Examiner states that it must be considered whether new matter is being presented because Applicants did not provide support in the specification for the claim amendments.

Therefore, in order to assist the Examiner, Applicants submit that support for the claim amendments filed February 28, 2006 can be found on page 5, lines 7-9 ("Objects of the invention are achieved by an object cooperation system for executing processing in cooperation between a plurality of objects connected by a common communication path."). (See also page 5, lines 17-21, Fig. 1, item 3, and Fig. 6, items 1a, 2b, 3c and 3).

If there are any formal matters remaining after this response, the Examiner is requested to telephone the undersigned to attend to these matters.

If there are any additional fees associated with filing of this Amendment, please charge the same to our Deposit Account No. 19-3935.

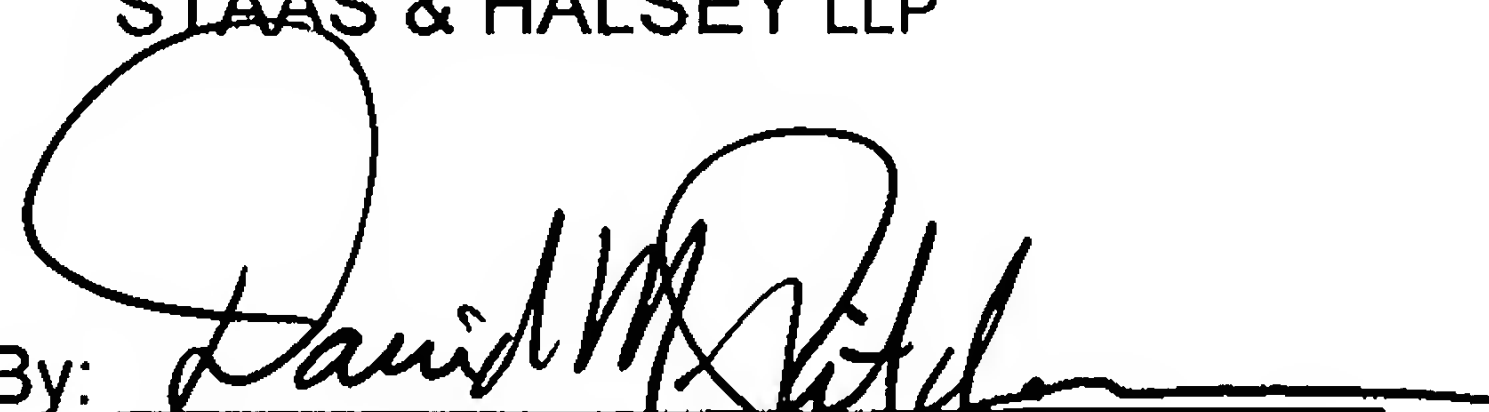

Respectfully submitted,

STAAS & HALSEY LLP
